ACTIVATION OF VALUE EDUCATION (VE) CELL

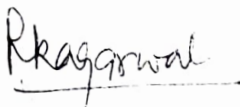

As you all are aware, the college is investing sincere efforts since last few years to ensure value-based living. Universal Human Values (UHV) courses for the students and FDPs for faculty members are found helpful in achieving the same. The VE Cell is putting a lot of effort in this direction. In addition increasing number of evening and weekend workshops are being planned for students.

To strengthen VE Cell and impactful UHV teaching, the following faculty members are being attached to VE Cell :

- a) Dr Upasana Mishra, CSE
- b) Dr Parul Verma, AS&H
- c) Mr. Raghvendra Pratap Singh, ECE
- d) Mr. Bihari Nandan Pandey, CSE

They may be given one theory subject of their department and will take UHV subjects in at least two sections.

They may not be assigned other department responsibilities to enable them to participate dedicatedly in the planned VE Cell activities.

January 30 – Martyrs' Day

Today being 30th Jan , Martyrs' Day would be observed by all Faculty Staff and Students of the college beginning at 11:00 AM by observing silence for 2 minutes. Following procedure would be followed: -

- a) First Hooter - 10:55 AM. To be sounded by the Exam Control Room.
Faculty in respective classes to read the message as given below.
- b) Second Hooter - 11:00 AM- All to stand still where ever they are to observe silence.
- c) Third Hooter - Normal work is resumed.

Since the sessional tests for first year is on, to avoid confusion regarding Hooters, Dean examination is requested to brief all invigilators to inform all students taking exams in advance before the Hooter is played and provided a copy of this notice in each exam room. All Hods are also requested to do the same in their respective classes.

Faculty and staff in each dept. are requested to maintain the silence at their respective places of work.

Message to Be Read by Faculty

January 30 is observed as the Martyrs' Day. On this day Gandhi ji was assassinated. It is an annual observance day to honor all the freedom fighters who gave up their lives in service of the Nation.

Every year on January 30th, a two-minute silence is observed at 11am in memory of Gandhi ji and other revolutionaries who sacrificed their lives for the independence of our country. The Day reminds us of great people who attained martyrdom while defending the sovereignty of the country. Let us observe silence for two minutes for paying homage to souls of all those martyred in service of the nation. Additionally, on this day we must resolve to up hold the value systems for which all martyrs laid down their lives.
